

Rewild

Get up close and personal with some of our native flora. Students join us on an active conservation project and discover Indigenous species and their importance in the ecosystem. Our conservation projects change with the seasons. Students may be planting trees for habitat, collecting seed for propagation, or helping with weed removal. View your conservation efforts on a GIS (Geographic Information System) digital map to gain insight into how Nature Parks protects habitat for wildlife across Millowl (Phillip Island).

- Supervised fieldwork
- Conservation
- Habitat
- Native species
- Features and adaptations

Level: Upper Primary - Tertiary

Location: Summerland Peninsula, Barb Martin Bush Bank (located at Koala Conservation Reserve) or Cape Woolamai Beach

Duration: 1 hour

Ranger to student ratio: 1:25

Price: $7.50 per student

Minimum Cost: $150.00

Equipment: Sun protection, closed shoes, water bottle

Ranger facilitated session times are: 10:30am, 12:30pm and 3:00pm. Evening session times vary with the season. All ranger facilitated experiences are subject to availability.

We welcome your enquiry.

Phone: +61 3 5951 2802

Email: schoolbookings@penguins.org.au

More information visit: <https://www.penguins.org.au/conservation/education/>

This experience links to a range of curriculum outcomes across year levels, including Geography, Science and Environmental Science.